

FOR THE FIRST NIGHT. FIFTEEN MINUTES.

- 1 Phone down, somewhere else. Another room, or a drawer. The distance is the point.
 - 2 Lights low. One lamp, not the ceiling.
 - 3 Write down what is still in your head. The PM page. It does not have to read well, it has to be out of your head.
 - 4 The wrap, if you like weight. Warmed for a minute, or straight from the box.
 - 5 Put your mask on. It goes on last.

None of this is a prescription. It is four things that happen to sit well together at the end of a day. Goodnight.
